WRBLSA REGIONAL EMPLOYER TABLING

Phoenix, Arizona

JANUARY 24, 2025

MESSAGE FROM OUR 57TH REGIONAL CHAIR

Dear Employer,

On behalf of the Western Region of the National Black Law Students Association (WRBLSA), I cordially invite you to participate in the WRBLSA Job Fair. The Job Expo will be held in-person and virtually.

The most successful legal employers recognize the importance of recruiting, developing, and retaining diverse attorneys in the workplace. The WRBLSA Job Expo provides an excellent opportunity to recruit diverse law students eager to contribute to the legal community and to the future success of participating employers. The Job Fair offers employers access to our expansive network, as all NBLSA members will have an opportunity to bid at our job fair. We are proud to present our virtual capacity for the 2024 Fall Job Fair. This option will allow employers from across the country, in or out of state, to conduct interviews with students attending the Job Expo. Our team is working tirelessly to organize an effectual and sound event so employers may efficiently identify candidates who fit their unique work environments.

If you are interested in participating in this year's Job Expo, please complete the Google registration form, and return it along with the appropriate payment before August 9th 2024. Registration for employers will end on August 9th, 2024 to allow ample time for students to bid on employers and for employers to select applicants they wish to interview. We also have various sponsorship opportunities if you are interested in providing monetary or in-kind support to the WRBLSA Job Expo.

If you have any questions or concerns, feel free to contact us via email at wrblsa@nblsa.org, wrblsa.vicechair@nblsa.org. We look forward to your participation in this year's Job Fair.

Sincerely,
Troi Madison Newman, MPS

MESSAGE FROM OUR 57th REGIONAL VICE-CHAIR

Dear Employer,

Thank you for your interest in our upcoming Regional Job Expo. As the Vice Chair for the Western Region of the Black Law Students Association (WRBLSA), I'm excited about the potential of your participation.

Your involvement aligns with our mission to create opportunities for Black legal professionals. The job expo at the Regional Convention will be WRBLSA's second job fair of the year. We are excited to add an in-person component and invite our employers to table at the regional convention. We invite you to join us at the regional job expo to connect with talented students of color eager to contribute to your organization.

Your participation not only benefits our members but also promotes diversity and inclusion in the legal field. We recognize the resources required to attend such events and deeply appreciate your support. Your commitment to WRBLSA is invaluable, and we anticipate a successful job expo that will positively impact our members.

To ensure a productive experience for both employers and students, we've structured the regional job expo to maximize meaningful interactions. We will have opportunities for employers who are not quite ready to interview students, but still want opportunity to connect with our students, through in-person labeling. This format allows for both casual networking and more formal interview opportunities, giving you a comprehensive view of potential candidates.

In addition to the job fair, we encourage your participation in our career development workshops. Your insights and expertise would be invaluable in sessions on resume building, interview skills, or navigating the legal profession as a person of color. We look forward to your involvement and the opportunities it will bring.

Sincerely,

Ariel Archie
Western Regional Vice Chair

WHO IS WRBLSA ?

Founded in 1968 by Algernon J. Cooper at New York University Law School, the National Black Law Students Association (NBLSA) is a 501(c)(3) organization that works to increase the number of culturally responsible Black and minority attorneys who excel academically, succeed professionally, and positively impact the community. NBLSA conducts robust programming initiatives including career fairs, academic retreats, domestic and international engagement, and civic advocacy in the legislative and judicial arenas. With over 10,000 members across 200 chapters and six regions nationwide, NBLSA provides a strong network of support and resources. The organization's mission extends beyond law schools into broader societal issues, promoting equity in criminal justice, institutional representation, and global citizenship. Members benefit from exclusive opportunities for professional development, mentorship, and scholarships, all designed to foster a new generation of legal leaders dedicated to justice and community service.

The Western Region of the Black Law Students Association comprises chapters in Arizona, Alaska, California, Hawaii, Idaho, Oregon, Nevada, Utah and Washington. Our region is divided into four sub-regions to better serve our students and to allow more opportunities for our students to be paired with law firms in mentorship opportunities. The four sub-regions consist of: the Pacific Northwest, Northern California, Southern California, and the Desert. The Western Region has cultivated a legacy of distinguished leaders who have served on its Board of Directors, including Vice President of the United States Kamala Harris; renowned American journalist and entrepreneur Angela Rye; and Jamon Hicks, who is a Partner at Douglas / Hicks Law, APC in Los Angeles, California.

INFORMATION

Disclaimer for Participating Employers: By registering and attending the Western Region of the Black Law Students Association (WRBLSA) Regional Job Expo you agree to the following terms and conditions:

1. Payment and Registration: Your registration and participation are contingent upon the receipt of full payment of the job fair fees. WRBLSA reserves the right to deny access to the event if payment is not received in full.

2. Attendance Notification and Refunds: When registering for the WRBLSA Regional Job Fair, it is crucial to inform the Vice-Chair, Ariel Archie, a minimum of seven days before the event if your organization cannot attend. Please note that under no circumstances will refunds be issued, regardless of the reason for non-attendance or the timing of the cancellation notice. This no-refund policy applies to all registrations and is strictly enforced to ensure fair treatment of all participants and to maintain the financial integrity of the event.

3. Use of Information: Any information provided by job fair attendees, including resumes, contact details, and personal data, is to be used solely for recruitment purposes. Employers must comply with all applicable data protection and privacy laws when handling this information.

4. No Guarantee of Outcome: While WRBLSA facilitates interactions between employers and job expo participants, we do not guarantee any specific outcomes regarding employment offers or hires. The success of recruitment efforts is the sole responsibility of the participating employers.

6. Liability: WRBLSA is not liable for any direct, indirect, incidental, special, or consequential damages resulting from your participation in the job fair, including but not limited to lost opportunities, business interruptions, or any other commercial damages or losses.

7. Changes and Cancellations: WRBLSA reserves the right to make changes to the job fair schedule, format, or venue. In the event of cancellation or significant alteration, WRBLSA will make reasonable efforts to notify participants in advance. Refunds for cancellations will be handled according to the job fair's cancellation policy.

8. Feedback Survey: To continually enhance our services, each employer will receive a survey on the day of the job expo seeking feedback on your experience. Your responses will help us improve future events and better serve both employers and attendees.

By attending the WRBLSA Virtual Job Fair, you acknowledge and accept these terms and conditions. Thank you for your cooperation and participation.
